

ROMANTIC MARRIAGE.

Former Carson Miss Married White at College.

Miss Sadie Henderson daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Henderson who, formerly lived in this city, where Mr. Henderson was Warden of the penitentiary for a number of years was married at Salt Lake City to Clyde Rummel, a reporter on the Daily Statesman. The Elko Independent contains the following account:

A great stir of surprise was caused Monday afternoon by a telegram from Miss Colburn matron of Rowland Hall Salt Lake, saying that Sadie Henderson had married Mr. Clyde Rummel of Boise, Idaho. Her parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. O. Henderson of Elko, had no intimation of the approaching event and were preparing to attend Sadie's graduation, which was to have occurred next month. The young people have been close friends for several years and there would have been no objection to the marriage if it had happened in the usual way and after the graduation.

Her parents had planned for several years of advance study in music and were looking forward to some years of pleasure in arranging a succession of nice surprises for her. But the young folks had evidently formed other plans for the future.

Miss Henderson was in the tennis court shortly before 5 o'clock when Rummel drove up in a close carriage and signalled to Miss Henderson. She hurried to the vehicle and the young couple drove rapidly away to the county clerk's office where a marriage license was issued with dispatch. From the office the lovers hurried to the residence of the Rev. Benjamin Young pastor of the First Methodist church, where the ceremony was performed.

Another young woman student at Rowland Hall, who saw the carriage drive away with Miss Henderson, hastily informed Miss Colburn, the principal, who at once telephoned to the clerk's office but it was too late, the license had been issued and the young people had gone. Miss Colburn then notified Miss Henderson's father at Elko.

Three delegates were named to represent the Grand Lodge of Nevada at the biennial session of the Supreme Lodge which is to meet in Montreal, during June 1906. They were Charles E. Murphy of Gold Hill, J. A. Miller of Austin and P. McRae of Reno.

Joe Miller the retiring Grand Master was presented with a handsome gold-headed cane, suitably engraved.

Lyon vs. Storey County.

The disputed boundary case between Lyon and Storey county came up in the District Court yesterday Judge Brown presiding. W. E. F. Deal represents Storey County while Lyon is represented by Mack and Farrington. The jury, consisting of Carsonites, were selected and the hearing of the case was on during the day. Through the request of Attorney Mack the jurors were all locked up with about a weeks prospect in sight.

The case involves the ownership of the ground that the Southern Pacific railroad has built upon and the assessed value amounts to several thousand dollars to the county and the contest is very lively. A score or more of witnesses on both sides are in attendance many of them who have dug up more ancient history that was supposed to have belonged to Nevada.

James Yerington has returned from an Eastern trip and says that Nevada is looked upon as the greatest mining state in the Union.

AN EXPERTS OPINION.

But Elmer Makes a Showing for A Home Company.

Some weeks ago Percy better known as "Buck" Elmer departed for the Tonopah-Goldfield section for a home company where he is employed as local expert with authority to get on the end of a pick and shovel and thoroughly investigate the property holdings of the people who sent him along the line.

A few days ago he made his first exhaustive report of the situation, part of which is taken for the edification of the rest of the corporation who have not read the entire preamble:

"Arrived in this section. Your claims at the Amargosa river were reached after a hard tussle through sand and broken automobiles. It was with difficulty that I found the claim, as others have intersected it with claim stakes until it looks like a grave yard. I carried my fish pole down to the river, also a pair of rubber boots, but since arriving on the scene have found that the water is so high that the fishing is out of the question and so disposed of the pole and boots: please send a linen duster to take their place.

The reason that I have condemned this part of your holdings is that I fear the overabundance of water will more than water your stock that you proposed putting on the market. I am to return to the section above Tonopah in a few days or as soon as my feet will stand the trip.

"Tonopah—I have just returned from a trip to the claims that you wished experted. The 'Hard-up' claim failed to have the proper croppings, and so have leased the two claims to 'Bodie' Wilson for a race track as he is here with a couple of horses for Senator Oddie. He will only have to measure the course off as there is not the sign of a sage brush or rock on the entire forty acres. He has asked for a five year lease as he believes in the future of the district.

"Without doubt your people have a ty you own is that for which you people payed five thousand dollars. It is situated nearly twenty miles from water, which makes it more interesting. The ground is certainly the hardest formation I ever tackled.

"Without doubt you people have a great prospect. In the first place we passed through three strattas of assessment formation which was followed by a dense mass of diguipite. The present formation shows a horse of dark color which, to my trained eye, indicates that we may come into a corral full of horses. We are doing our best to classify the formation and get assays from the ground, but so far without result. It is certainly exceedingly encouraging as long as the grub lasts and we are on the water wagon.

"In conclusion I might state that a check for about $500 to meet the sheriff will be available. In my next report I hope to give you further details of the progress.

A Company That Keeps its Promises.

The following letter explains itself:

Chicago, March 11, 1905.

Mr. F. W. Day, Carson City, Nevada.

Dear Sir:—

When showing our line do not fail to impress upon your customers that we guarantee fit and satisfaction. It is an old adage and well read that "A satisfied customer is the best advertisement." This is the kind of advertising that has helped to make us the biggest tailoring concern in the World, and right now, at the beginning of the season, we wish to impress upon you that we will satisfy your customers. The Point we wish to make is simply this: we don't want you to have a single dissatisfied customer. We use the best hair cloth, consequently fronts of our coats will not break. Should however, an exceptional garment lose its shape, do not hesitate to return the garment to us and we will put it back in proper shape and if this cannot be done, we will make a new one for you, no matter how long during the season the customer has worn it.

The same applies to the linings. We guarantee our linings to wear and if any linings do not give entire satisfaction we will reline garments free of charge.

Trusting that you will use your efforts to prove the merits of our made-to-measure garments and with best wishes for a successful Spring business, we are,

Yours truly,

THE INTERNATIONAL TAILORING CO.

P. S. The Spring and Summer line is complete, there are no "Outs" or Temporary "Outs."

GREAT FLOTO SHOWS.

"The Circus Beautiful" to be Here Tomorrow.

The Great Floto Shows are coming. No better circus will ever visit here. The parade will be given at 10 o'clock in the morning going over the principal streets of the city. All of the features which have glared upon the people from the bill boards are said to be actually in existence with the circus and a sterling entertainment is promised.

But few people have any idea of the vast amount of money expended and invested in the modern circus. The menagerie which is usually given but a passing glance as the sightseers hurry on through to the big show, represents in itself a fortune of some magnitude. Wild animals are a costly luxury and the cheapest of them come exceedingly high aside from the item of keeping and caring for them. Herr Ambers foreign agent with headquarters on the Island of Malta who buys scores of animals each year in speaking of their cost says:

"The finest lions were those obtained from the North African mountains but they no longer exist. The male has a fine mane and is worth from $1,150 to $1,500. Lions vary in price with the kind and the quality sought. A good Nubian lion will bring about $1,000 and a good Bengal lions from $500 to $750."

This is of course in their wild state at home. The care and transportation run the amount up several times their original cost. If they are tractable and can be trained to perform their value is increased a hundred fold. The lions now with the Floto shows roll barrels, play see-saw and do an act that runs thirty minutes and are valued at $45,000 on account of their earning capacity. It required seven years to bring them to their present perfection so it is said.

This great show and the wonderful trained lions will be seen in this city tomorrow, Saturday May 20th. Remember the parade takes place at 10 o'clock sharp Saturday morning and you can't afford to miss that part of the day's pleasure.

THE MASTERPIECE.

Finest Basket Ever Executed by the Master Weaver.

At the Emporium in this city the is on exhibition the finest piece of basketry ever woven by any member of the Chinthee tribe and in all likelihood of any tribe on the Pacific Coast. It is the work of Dat-so-la-lee, who is regarded as the finest weaver ever known in this section. Her work for the past few years has attracted the attention of collectors all over the world, and a number of her fine specimens decorate collections in a dozen big cities throughout the world. No great collection is considered complete without a specimen of her work.

The latest creation is the basket with the most wonderful weave. It has all the appearance of inlaid work, so closely are the fine colored willow strands drawn together. The colors are of the golden white of the natural willow, the red and black blended in as only a natural born artist can do the work. The line of perspective is maintained with a persision that would defy the ordinary artist to maintain, as the curve of the graceful basket has to be followed from the base to the crest of the basket. It is by far the largest piece of work that this particular weaver has ever undertaken and her work is just as fine throughout as any of the small pieces that won the admiration of those who have made a study of this fine art.

In the present basket the stitch is thirty to the inch while the entire basket contains nearly fifty thousand stitches, which represents a year's close work. Every piece of willow in the entire production was hand cut, sorted and selected, which alone shows a delicacy that is very uncommon, as every piece has to be trimmed to the exact size in order to keep the stitch to its proper adjustment.

Mr. Cohn who has employed Dat-so-la-lee for the past four years states that this is the jewel of his collection. He states that the woman is by far the finest artist in her line that he has any knowledge of, and he has dealt with thousands of different Indians within the last few years and has had a chance to judge. She is certainly the master of the art and is is doubtful if a duplicate of the basket can be found in any collection in the world. The basket will be place on exhibition Saturday when lovers of fine art can have a chance to see the finest specimen of basketry ever shown in the west.

A very flattering offer was made for the basket yesterday by a collector, which was turned down as Mr. Cohn knows the value of this piece of work.

Appropriation Too Small.

Considerable agitation has sprung up in Reno over the appropriation for the Federal building to be erected on Virginia street as it has been found that the amount named is utterly insufficient for the purpose. Senator Nixon has been appealed to, and a communication signed by prominent business men politicians and others, has been forwarded to the Secretary of the Treasury, pointing out that the appropriation is inadequate, and asking that an inspector be sent to Reno at once.

Sparks Saloon Robbed

With at least a dozen persons in the building a lone highwayman securely masked and heavily armed entered the Oberon saloon at Sparks at 11 o'clock last night commanded Bartender A. D. Scott and Cook Mike Murray to throw up their hands, then coolly walked behind the bar, opened the cash register, took $100 in large coin from the drawers leaving the change untouched. With his wicked looking revolver still pointed at the submissive men the desperate man then backed through the door and escaped. A moment later a half dozen men came out of the dining room saw the robber fleeing through the door and followed him with a volley of shots.—Journal.
